Hamiltonian, Continental Name Heads

Schriber, Roscher Lead 1950 Staffs

Don Roscher and Harvey Shriber have been named by retiring editors Steve Feldman and Mort Sams to edit next year's editions of the Continental and Hamiltonian, respectively. The appointments were confirmed at a meeting of the Publictaions Board on Monday.

At the same meeting, the Business Staff for next year was named by the Board. Donald Baldwin will be business manager of all publications and Jack Hill and Lyman Stookey will handle circulation and advertising for all three.

Shriber has been associated with the Hamiltonian for two years, serving as layout editor this year. He was a member of the Charlatans in his sophomore year as well.

The new editor of the literary magazine has been a member of the editorial board for three years and is serving his second term on the Honor Court. He has also acted in four Charlatan productions and wrote a weekly column in the Spectator in 1947.

The yearbook editor announced this week that he had not named his staff as yet, except for the position of Assistant Editor which will be held by Dean Alfange. He stated that "the staff for next year will be comprised of those men interested in making the Hamiltonian the great publication it has always been."

Roscher has not completed the selection of his editorial staff, either. He stated that he would name "those men who, in my judgement, are best qualified to chose between successful and uncreative efforts."

The establishment of a Dean's List, containing the names of all students with averages of 85 or more, was approved by the Faculty on Monday. The list, which will go into effect at the end of the current semester, will not eliminate the posting of those whose averages are between 80 and 85, nor will it carry any special privileges.

Two Science Dept. Mishaps During Week

Two spectacular accidents, a laboratory explosion and a near electrocution, have marked the last week in Hamilton science courses. Both victims, Gordon R. Smith, '49, and David N. Whitcombe, '51, suffered burns which are now healing satisfactorily.

Smith received received first and second degree burns of the face, chest, back and hands, when a container of alcohol exploded last Thursday afternon in the Organic Chemistry laboratory. He was treated at the Infirmary, where he remained until released last Monday.

Whitcombe, on an overnight Geology field trip, was knocked unconscious when he grasped a poorly-insulated 440-volt electric cable in the watery 400-foot level diggings of the Carbola Talc Mine. After a miner had detach- him from the line, Whitcombe was restored to consciousness by Mr. Oxley and John W. Rushmore, '51, who applied artificial respiration. He returned to the Hill and was treated for shock and electrical burns of the right wrist and hand.

"Time in The Sun", a Spanish film, will be shown as part of the foreign film series, Thursday, May 19, in the Chemistry Auditorium at 4:30 and 8:00.

Hill Bus Service to Start Next Monday on Trial Basis

Bus service to the Hamilton campus will begin Monday, May 16, on a trial basis. The N. Y. State Public Service Commission has ordered the Utica Transit Corporation to extend their bus service to the top of the Hill for the trial period of May 16 to October 29.

The dates of the trial period were set by the Commission and not by any of the interested parties. It is virtually certain, according to David Wilder, the head of the Hamilton Bus Service Committee, that the fact that the bus will be running during school recess will be taken into account in any evaluation of the results of the trial period. The Commission will base its final findings on whether the ridership will permit the bus company to maintain the line without a loss. The nine weeks that the bus will be running during college sessions will be enough to ascertain whether the bus could be run profitably during the school year. If the results show that such an extension would not be profitable, the line would be discontinued at the end of October.

The referee of the hearings, John O'Brien, said in his recommendation to the Commission that one of New York State's leading colleges was without any means of public transportation and that he was recommending an extension of the service to the campus.

Thirteen Freshmen Tapped For Outstanding Leadership

New D. T. Group Chosen Wednesday

For the thirteen day period which started last Wednesday with their tapping, thirteen outstanding members of the freshman class will wear a cork dangling from their lapel, signifying membership in D. T., sophomore honor society.

Roger Wood, Si Keehn, and Jim Robinson, officers of the Class of 1952 for next year, are all included in the group. President-elect Wood, a member of Delta Upsilon and of next year's Student Council, was a member of the varsity basketball team and is shortstop on the baseball team. It was Wood's triple with the bases loaded which enabled the Blue to nose out Union in the closing innings last weekend.

Keehn, who will be Vice-President next year, sings in the glee club and plays lacrosse. Robinson, who will be serving as Secretary-Treasurer for the second year, played both football and basketball. Keehn is a member of Alpha Delta Phi, while Robinson is a Theta Delt.

Jack Banks and Pete Wood are also among the initiates. Banks, who is currently battling for the number one place on the tennis team, lettered in soccer last fall, played JV basketball, and has been a member of the news staff of the Spectator for the past semester. Wood was a regular on the swimming team and is out for lacrosse this spring. Both are members of Alpha Delta Phi.

ELS freshman Don Thomas is another on the list. Thomas was named to the Honor Court as freshman representative early last fall, and has since played basketball, spring football and JV baseball. Paul Mosier and Gene Stephens, both Dekes, will also wear the cork, as will Joel Squier. Mosier was a member of the "freshman line" which played so well against Victoria during the hockey season, and Stephens played football and JV basketball. Squier, a member of the track team, is also a member of Theta Delta Chi.

Rod Gander and Nat Hartshorne, both Sigs, and Bob Cornelius and Jack Sanborn, both members of Psi Upsilon, complete the group. Hartshorne, who appeared as the drunk in Hope Is The Thing With Feathers, also played football and JV hockey, while Gander was a letterman in hockey. Cornelius played football last fall and runs the 440 for the track team, and Sanborn played hockey and is also on the JV baseball team.

Al Schneider, E. Howard, Win Prize Debate

Last Monday night the seventy-eighth McKinney Prize Debate was held in Emerson Hall. Alfred Schneider won the first prize for individual excellence and Elliott Howard was awarded second prize.

The subject debated this year was: That Higher Education is properly a Function of the Federal Government. The affirmative was supported by Schneider and Dale Williams and the negative by Howard and Sheldon Horowitch. The decision of the Debate proper was given by the audience and went to the affirmative, while the individual speaking awards were judged by Dr. Count, Mr. Latimer B. Senior, '30, and Mr. J. Leo Coupe, '30. This year the first prize was $30 and the second, $25.

The affirmative case was based on two propositions: That it was morally proper for the Federal Government to concern itself with Higher Education for the welfare of the country and for the sucessful execution of its other functions through an educated population; and that such a move was constitutionally correct under the "General Welfare" clause in the Constitution.

The negative's answer was that complete freedom of Higher Educational facilities was the best way in which the country could be educated, and that, were the Federal Government to make such Education its function, undesirable control would be exercised by the Government, removing the vi-

N. Y. Central Menu Features Hamilton

The feature section of the New York Central's menus will be devoted to information on Hamilton College during the month of June, as part of the Central's series on American colleges served by the railroad. The write-up will include a brief history of the founding of the college, followed by a list of some of Hamilton's more noted alumni, including Philip Jessup, Alexander Woollcott, Irving Ives, and Samuel Hopkins Adams. The verses of Carissima appear, along with pictures of the Chapel, Truax Hall and the Library. A sample copy of the menu is posted on the bulletin board in front of Buttrick Hall at present.

Brown, Luers Named to Serve On Athletic Board

With approximately 400 students voting, Tom Gregory, Bob Mackay, Bill Hutchison, and Bill Schwarz were named to the Student Council in the election held on Wednesday. Bob Brown and Bill Luers were chosen to serve on the newly created Athletic Advisory Board.

Gregory is President of Emerson Literary Society , vice-president of the Junior Class, and Secretary of the Intrerfraternity Council. A member of Was Los and D. T., he has won letters in soccer, basketbaall, and golf, and appeared in the Charlatan production of "In The Zone." He will be representative-at-large.

Mackay, representative of the class of 1950, will be serving his second year. Class President this year, he has been secretary of the current Student Council. He was named to "Who's Who in American Colleges" last fall, is a member of Was Los and D. T., and was captain of this year's basketball team.

Bill Hutchison, who was recently elected to Was Los, is a member of Delta Upsilon and was a leading force in the revival of The Royal Gaboon. He has served as Secretary-Treasurer of the class of 1951 for two years, is an officer in the SCA, and is on the Chapel Board.

The Sophomore representative on the Council will be Bill Schwarz, an Emersonian. Schwarz is the new Feature Editor of the Spectator, a member of the Glee Club, and a feature writer for the Hamiltonian.

Bob Brown, who will be Senior representative on the Athletic Advisory Board, is President of the Block "H" Club, captain of the football team, and a member of Was Los and D. T. Luers, the Junior representative, is a member of both class honor societies, and a member of the basketball and golf teams.

Speakers Try For McKinney Awards

On the evening of Wednesday, May 18, a 135 year old Hamilton tradition will be continued when the McKinney Speakers compete for prizes at Emerson Hall.

The impromptu speakers for the class of '50 are Berl Goldfuss, Richard Grimley, Robert Neiswanger, and Don Roscher. Herbert Blitz, Earl Huffman, Arthur Merritt, and David Podell of the sophomore delegation will speak extempore. Freshmen John Egner, C. Addison Keeler, Joseph Hull, and William Schwarz will end the evening with their memorator speeches.

A Statement of Policy

OBLIGATION....

Paramount in the minds of persons assuming responsibility for a Hamilton College publication is a feeling of obligation to the student body. This does not arise from any editorial altruism, but rather from an awareness of the business arrangement which guarantees that publication's existence: namely, that every student is required to subscribe to the campus publications regardless of his opinions or desire. The Spectator, then, is the property of the student body and the editors are trustees of student interest.

The editors of the Spectator recognize the obligation of their position and pledge themselves to run the paper accordingly. This does not mean that every suggestion or complaint can be completely honored, for the paper must operate to the satisfaction of the greatest number. It does mean that every suggestion and complaint will be considered and weighed as objectively as possible.

The Spectator editors welcome and depend on all students taking advantage of the various means of expressing their criticisms and suggestions concerning the newspaper: active participation on the staff, letters to the editors, or conferences with the editors. It is hoped that effective polls of campus opinion can be arranged regularly, to determine student confidence in the paper.

FUNCTION....

The primary function of a college newspaper is to record and report all activities and events as accurately as possible. Indeed, a good paper should present a complete image of the whole of college life.

To achieve this end more fully, the editors propose an extension of news coverage to include reporting of major activities within the various social groups. We feel that this will aid in integrating to a greater extent the various fraternities, Squires and the independent group into a cohesive Hamilton community. We hope that this plan will meet with student approval. We shall continue our regular policies of coverage, and hope that it is adequate.

An additional function of the newspaper is occasionally to criticize, comment, or appraise. Actually, an editor is qualified to do such editorializing only because, supposedly, he is more aware of the facts than the average reader. He is a sort of clearing house of information, from whom can be expected reasoned judgements resulting from a careful appraisal of all sides of a question. We pledge every effort to make the opinion expressed in Spectator editorials based on fact rather than on preconceived and often unfounded personal bias. In every stand the Spectator takes, the importance of the unity of the community will be held in constant regard; firm editorializing does not involve bitterness.

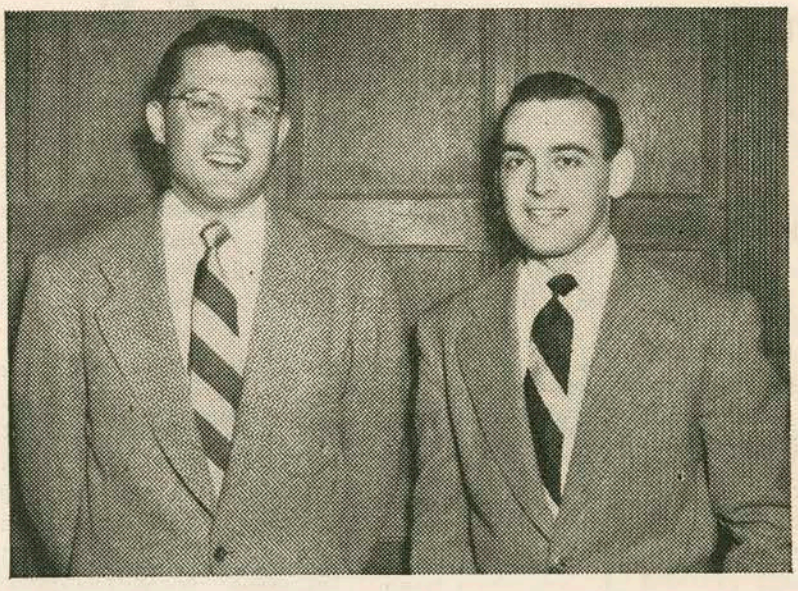
Student Council

The Student Council members elected at last Wednesday's all-college meeting are probably the most representative since the war. The number of votes, the method of nomination and the consideration given the candidates were all factors in making this the most successful post-war council election.

The Spectator is confident that the coming year will see the Student Council takes its proper place in the hill community. It also feels, however, that increased power is not a panacea for the ills of previous Student Councils. Present powers enable representatives to direct their interest toward seeking out and coordinating student problems, and then taking the proper action. This is all that is necessary; the problem of our new representatives lies in bringing to the fore student problems and in coordinating student activity. K.S.W.

Men of the Week

Charles McKeen and Robert Held Retire from Spectator Editorships



Bob Held and Chuck McKeen

After a very busy year, Chuck McKeen retired last week from his position of editor-in-chief of the Hamilton College Spectator. At the same time, Bob Held left his post as associate-editor of the paper.

Ex-editor McKeen lives in Kenmore, New York, where he went to the local high school. In 1943 Chuck enrolled at Hamilton, but his studies were interrupted by service with the Army until 1946. During his service, he was stationed in the Philippines with the Army Engineers for over a year. Chuck started as a sophomore and was elected secretary-treasurer of the class. The next three years found McKeen deep in the throes of pre-med. preparation. He also took on more responsibilities, becoming president of Lambda Chi Alpha for a year and becoming editor of the Spectator as a senior. Chuck plans to enter business in New York after Commencement.

Bob Held, former assiciate-editor, graduated from Moorestown High School in New Jersey in 1944. He served two years in the Navy, and while stationed on an LST in the Pacific, he rose to the rank of Electronic Technician's Mate, second class. Entering Hamilton in 1946, Bob joined Sigma Phi, became a member of the swimming team for two years, worked as a feature writer for Hamiltonews and feature and associate-editor of the Spectator. At present Held calls Milwaukee home. He is headed for the Harvard Business School next year.

Letter to the Editors

To the Editor of the Spectator:

If it is permissible, I should like to use this medium to compliment the Continental on its last issue. I think it is as good as was the excellent first issue, and of course far superior to the insipid second effort of the year.

The analysis by Charles Weinberg is one of the few items of its kind published by the Continental not wasted on my simple tastes. The Commentary on The Occupation of Germany is the second intelligent and honest piece of work under that heading in the magazine, and gave me great pleasure. James Collier proves as succinct, perceptive and cunning as ever (even though his conclusions are open to dispute), and Arnold Klein contributes a sensitive, quietly eloquent poem.

The third issue of this year's Continental is on a high plane for college writing except for a piece of work, extending over three pages more or less, which, I suppose, had to be printed. As a matter of fact, the literary misfortune is in itself of interest (if one looks at the man's previous output) as a further example demonstrating the harping theme and increasingly chaotic conception evident in its author's work.

Thus, to the Continental, I extend my appreciation, for what it may be worth.

Sincerely,
Herb Blitz

Entertainment In Clinton

by John E. Campion

Hamilton College was founded some years before the beginning of the New Deal and to this day reflects some of the barbaric qualities that characterized the pre-Roosevelt era. The first students were Indians and sons of pioneers. The Indians were later civilized and the pioneers went west to forget the whole thing. The state and the Indians granted a tract of wild land to the founder of the College, Sam Kirkland, and on this site the cornerstone for the first building was laid in 1794. (Similiar ceremonies have subsequently taken place during the years until the College has reached its present size.)

"The college today is mindful of its obligation for the physical, social, moral, and emotional development of its students." (Note to visitors: Only the latter will be considered this weekend). "The college attempts to provide for these aspects by affording ample equipment and desirable associations." (WARNING to Visitors: The college designates one weekend in May for these associations. May 13-14-15 is the weekend, and you, dear visitors, are the associations.)

The college is situated on a plateau (said by geologists to consist of a slow-moving mass of quicksand) 900 feet above sea level, 300 feet above Clinton, and 290 feet above Lambda Chi ("the world's largest fraternity", excluding the Masons and the Communist party, and the Saturday nite hotel for many).

The physical plant of the college includes 33 residences, 4 dormitories, 10 fraternity houses, 13 other buildings, 12 ex-army barracks (North Village), 1 golf course, 1 stadium (?), 1 cemetery, 594 students, 59 professors, and 17 assorted animals.

The following should be included in any tour (of the campus).

South Dormitory: A unique rock formation inhabited by freshmen, flaming waste paper baskets, and a mighty janitor.

Library: A Gothic building which has a remote fourth floor in case you feel philosophical, and includes a couple of items besides books which are stacked pretty neatly.

Chapel: The interior is being repaired. Visitors are warned that when visiting this building they should be careful of falling arches and loose pews.

Cemetery: There is more life here than you would imagine.

Root Glen: A delightful spot in which to commune with nature. Treacherous at night.

Sister Publications

The editors of the SPECTATOR take this opportunity to salute the editors of two sister campus publications which have appeared this month, the Continental and the Royal Gaboon.

Without venturing into the realm of literary criticism, we wish to submit that the editors of the Continental appear to be sincerely attempting to present a magazine which is a superior college literary effort. We have no right to suggest what policies should govern another publication, but we do feel in a position to comment on the general relationship between Hamilton students and their literary publication. We have recognized the obligation of Hamilton editors to student appraisal of their publications, but we should add, at this point, an important qualification of that appraisal: that is, that it must be reasoned and detached from any prejudices of personality. This is the kind of consideration which all publications, especially the Continental, deserve. It is the only kind of opinion that is meaningful..

Hamilton's humor magazine, the Royal Gaboon, appeared on the campus today. It is the first time the magazine has been produced in eight years. Editing and management of this issue was handled by an interested group of students acting independently of the Publications Board, although, of course, the Board had sanctioned their activities. It is to their great credit that they have produced a magazine which is well organized and of good appearance, and apparently soundly managed. It is to be hoped that the contents of the magazine will appeal to student taste, and, if demand warrants, that arrangements can be made to give the Gaboon a permanent place in campus publications.

EXTRAORDINARY NOTICE

To Students and Their Ladies Desirous of Being Entertained at the Hamilton College Spring Houseparties of A. D. 1949

believing that those of its readers who will be seeking gayety and laughter upon this occasion will want to be in attendance at one or more of the host of amazing attractions on the Hill on the evening of lucky Friday, the 13th of May, does take this means of inviting attention to the following treasure of enjoyments and does sincerely hope that the reader will see for himself why the

rendered in favor of the DELTA UPSILON Barn Dances, by previous attendents the campus over, is so richly deserved. Once again, the members of DU do take great delight in announcing that interested couples whose pleasure it may be to join hands and tread a measure in the traditional country folk dances are solicited to seek that pleasure at a to be held on this evening in the nearby village of Clark Mills. A goodly crowd is expected to be in attendance, and patrons are urged to present themselves at the American Legion Clubhouse at 9:00 o'clock, at which time the first set will be called.

Separate and distinctive from any other offering of its type, patrons are certain to be delighted by the

in evidence at a record dance which the members of DELTA KAPPA EPSILON assure the publishers will be perfectly adapted to the needs and desires of every man of substance who seeks to reap his pleasure from terpsichorean delights. As is the custom at such affairs, refreshments will be served in the DEKE Lounge to those patrons wishing to imbibe.

Not wishing to indulge in superlatives, the publishers do nevertheless wish to bring to the attention of the reader the

of a newly appointed saloon in Emerson Hall where all of the romance and drama of the glorious West has been authentically reproduced in a lavish setting which your hosts, the members of ELS, TAU KAPPA EPSILON and the SQUIRES CLUB, are certain will provide hitherto unimagined pleasures for all who delight in the carefree atmosphere of the wild and lawless West. The publishers believe it to be to caution prospective patrons regarding the unusually large attendance expected at this extraordinary event and would, therefore, urge all who seek choice tables to arrive as shortly after 8:30 o'clock as weather and transportation will permit.

Students and Ladies desirous of spending a more sedate yet companionable evening will, we feel certain, find it a

RICHLY REWARDING EXPERIENCE

to be present at the social gatherings to be held on this evening in either the SIGMA PHI PLACE or the SAMUEL EELLS MEMORIAL HALL. Your hosts, the Sigs and the members of ALPHA DELTA PHI, respectively, have informed the publishers that very special embellishments calculated to please the frivolous feminine element of their guests have been made, and also that refreshments of the

will be conveyed in a most pleasant manner, blended, as it were, with singing, wit and general good good cheer.

The publisher begs leave, also, to call the particular attention of its

if they are interested in reliving the jollities of colonial times, to a very special and elegant party given after the fashion of a celebration in honor of Alexander Hamilton, trustee of the College and noted American Federalist, which is to be held in the CHI PSI LODGE at approximately 9:00 o'clock. We feel certain that all in attendance at this affair will be delightfully entertained by the

CONTINENTAL ATMOSPHERE

It is hoped that the reader will realize that these few words can hardly do justice to so remarkable an attraction as will be featured at the PSI UPSILON BARN on this gay and eventful evening. In order to better acquaint himself with the delights of this attraction, the publishers urge all to be present punctually at eight o'clock when the "Little Red Barn Players" will entertain you with an

HILARIOUS VARIETY REVIEW

This spectacular collection of fascinating entertainments, employing an all-star cast, consists of bright and lilting arias by Messrs. Hilfinger and Babcock, the latest and most imaginative dance routines performed by Pete Haggerty and the lovelies of the Psi U Chorus Line, and the melodious barber-shop harmonies of the Psi's Octet.

INTERESTED PARTIES

are solicited to conduct themselves with utmost dispatch to the BARN in order to insure choice seats for an evening of truly exciting entertainment.

Students and ladies whose pleasure it may be to enjoy an evening of subdued revelry in the sophisticated atmosphere of will derive rewarding satisfaction from listening to the rippling rhythms of an instrumental trio especially employed to celebrate the opening of a recently refurnished salon in the LAMBDA CHI ALPHA HOUSE.

Furthermore, the publishers pledge that the uncompromising course, which has secured such approbation, of offering nothing but the most richly rewarding and entertaining attractions to Houseparty will be by each of the hosts mentioned in this announcement, and again solicit each reader to avail himself of the opportunity to profit from and delight in the extraordinary attractions in which the Hilltop will abound on this gay evening.

The kind reader is urged to pass this notice along to some other interested party or to tal "flexibility and diversity" from education.

The rebuttals stuck to much the same line with the negative adding that in order for Education to be a function of the Government, more than monetary aid was necessary. Any such further aid would be in the form of control which would ultimately work to the disadvantage of our educational system. The Affirmative countered that the question was not one of amounts of control, but rather, whether Higher Education was a proper function of the Government and that for the welfare of the country, it was.

SPORTS SPECTATOR SPORTS

Sport Views

By Jack Boynton

Exactly what is the reason for the sudden spurt in the activities of the various and sundry athletic teams at Hamilton? Well, what is the reason for New York Giant pitchers' coming through with well-pitched games? The answer to both questions is the same, and frankly it is this reporter's opinion that not one man in College can answer either of the questions (especially the first one). Perhaps the thought of bringing freshman athletes in has put a little much needed spark into the local sports enthusiasts. Or maybe these guys who are now turning in wins are just rejuvenated for some reason or other. At any rate it is most certainly a pleasant change from previous months.

The lacrosse team has a good reason for being what it is. In the first place it is attempting to show the authorities that lacrosse should stay around Hamilton for a few years at least. There has been some talk about de-emphasizing some sports in favor of hockey and football, and this might well mean the downfall of Hamilton's youngest sport. All in all it may well be a good idea to put the top priority on football and hockey, but it seems a shame that it has to be at the expense of one sport that has won a great following in a short two years.

Tomorrow all the boys will be out fighting for the glory of old Ham Coll and also for the little chicks they brought up to enjoy the famous Hamilton Spring Houseparty activities. The girls can be sure of some mighty good showings on the athletic fields if such is their fancy. That 11 to 2 drubbing the baseball team handed Hobart last week makes the ball team well worth watching. Golf will be all over by the time most of the dates arrive, and that's a damn pity, since the golfers are showing themselves to be mighty good representatives of Hamilton's winning side in sports. Tennis, track, and, of course, lacrosse will fill out a mighty interesting weekend.

Hill Golf Team Meets U. of R.

The golf squad teed off against the University of Rochester squad this afternoon. After beating Hobart earlier in the week, the squad went on to make it two straight last Saturday when they downed RPI 7 1|2 to 1 1|2.

In the first match against RPI Bert Wright and Gordie Burton faced Ed Korjlack and Ed Padlo. Each team got one for game and 1|2 point for match. Burton was medalist for the afternoon with a 69.

In the other two matches Hamilton led all the way. Tom Gregory and Bob Mackay beat Dick Eckelman and Al Palmar in the second match, while Don Gregory and Bill Luers downed John MacIntyre and Dick Lasses.

Next week the squad travels to Hobart to face the Statesmen on the Geneva links.

Nine Downs Hobart & Union

Wood Paces Team In Two Games

In their only weekend game, Hamilton's baseball team faced the University of Rochester on the Hill diamond this afternoon. Wednesday the Blue met the strong Rochester nine on the road, and next weekend Hamilton will go on a two day journey to RPI and Middlebury.

By all odds, the strongest baseball team on the Hill since the war, the Continentals, boasting a two game winning streak as of last Saturday, were the underdogs in the Rochester games.

For the first time in four years, the Blue downed Hobart 11-2 on Friday, and Saturday they edged Union 9-8 on the Garnet's Alexender Field. After going hitless in two games, Rog Wood caught fire and paced the Continentals in both contests, batting in seven runs and getting four hits.

Tom Carpenter, who was knocked out of the box in the Upsala game two weeks ago, held Hobart to seven scattered hits and one earned run. Jim Beaverson received credit for the Union win although he gave up seven base knocks. He was lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth inning, and Tony Sleggs finished up, hurling two frames of hitless ball.

Trailing 8-5 going into the eighth inning of the Union game, the Continentals rallied to score four runs on only two hits. Marty Fribush drew a base on balls and Tom Sweet singled. Bill Crew was safe on an error. Wood cleared the bases with a triple and then scored as Ronny Powers flied out to center.

Stickmen Bow to Union, Face Hobart; Middlebury Downs Track Team, 68-58

Tomorrow at 2:30 the Continental lacrosse squad meets the toughest foe of its three game old career of formal sports status at Hamilton, as Hobart invades the Hill.

Last Saturday, May 7, at Union, the Blue lacrossemen ran out of steam after a brilliant display of speed and power in the upset of Ithaca the week before, and were beaten by the Dutchmen 14-5.

Opening the scoring in the first quarter for Hamilton was Charlie Reach, a very promising freshman who will be freely substituted into the first attack line this Saturday, and closing the goal-making after Dick Baldwin's three tallies, was Jim Sontheimer, who tossed one in at the 13 minute mark of the last period.

A decided weakness in the running events offset the power in the field and destroyed the track team's chances for an initial win of the season last Saturday as the Blue bowed to Middlebury, 68-58, on the latter's cinders. Tomorrow afternoon the Continentals will be host to Rochester, who dropped an 82-44 decision to RPI in the last outing.

Outstanding for the Blue at Middlebury were Fred Schmidt in the weight events and Paul Langa in the jumping contests. Schmidt put the shot 42' 1 1|4" and returned to cop the discus with a toss of 122' 6 3|4". Langa, in the meantime, proceeded to win the broad jump with a leap of 19' 11" and tie for first in the high jump with 5' 8".

Hamilton Bows, 5-2; Commits 7 Errors

Although Tom Carpenter hurled a five hitter, Hamilton's baseball team bowed to Rochester, 5-2, as the Continentals committed seven errors on the winners' diamond Wednesday. The Yellow Jackets scored all their runs in the first four innings and after that Carpenter held Rochester hitless, retiring the last nine men to face him in order.

Clair P. Babcock has been elected co-captain of track to serve with Captain Bob Clements who is unable to compete.

Netmen Nip Utica; Face Rochester

The varsity tennis team will face one of the strongest teams in the state when they play the Rochester netmen this afternoon on the Hill courts. Coach Mox Weber's charges expect it to be their toughest match of the year. Tomorrow the squad will face Cortland State Teachers on the local courts. In a match with Utica College last week the squad had little trouble winning 7-2.

In the varsity match with Utica, Vandy Ward beat Frank 6-2 and 9-7, Jack Banks beat Zebrak with a 7-5 and 6-4 match, and Bill Cooper had little trouble disposing of Tracey, 6-0, 6-2. Pete Grimm beat Miller, 7-5 and 6-0. Don Mawhinney was forced to win ten games in the first set to beat Rothbard 10-8 but took the second set with a 6-0 score.

In the varsity doubles, Frank and Zebrak beat Ward and Grimm, 6-4, 6-4. Cooper and Banks scored easily over Tracey and Miller with 6-1, 6-2 counts, while Mawhinney and Ralph Shulansky were forced to go into a third set to win, 9-7, 4-6, 6-3.
